

CONFUSCIOUS SAY...

“Best Way to get Attention in ‘Waiting Pool’ is make a Splash.”

Best way to get attention in "waiting pool" is make a splash.

Do you find yourself and your company like so many, just waiting? Waiting for something to happen. Waiting for some light to change, signaling that you can go. Business has become a 'waiting pool' of inaction, void of any ripple and stagnating in marketing silence. What an opportunity this would be to make a splash. A time to make a sound amidst this silence. To be heard, when before there was so much clutter. Let Triad help you plan to make a 'splash' at your next trade show. And as Confucious would also say, "with Triad, it not cost a Fortune."
