

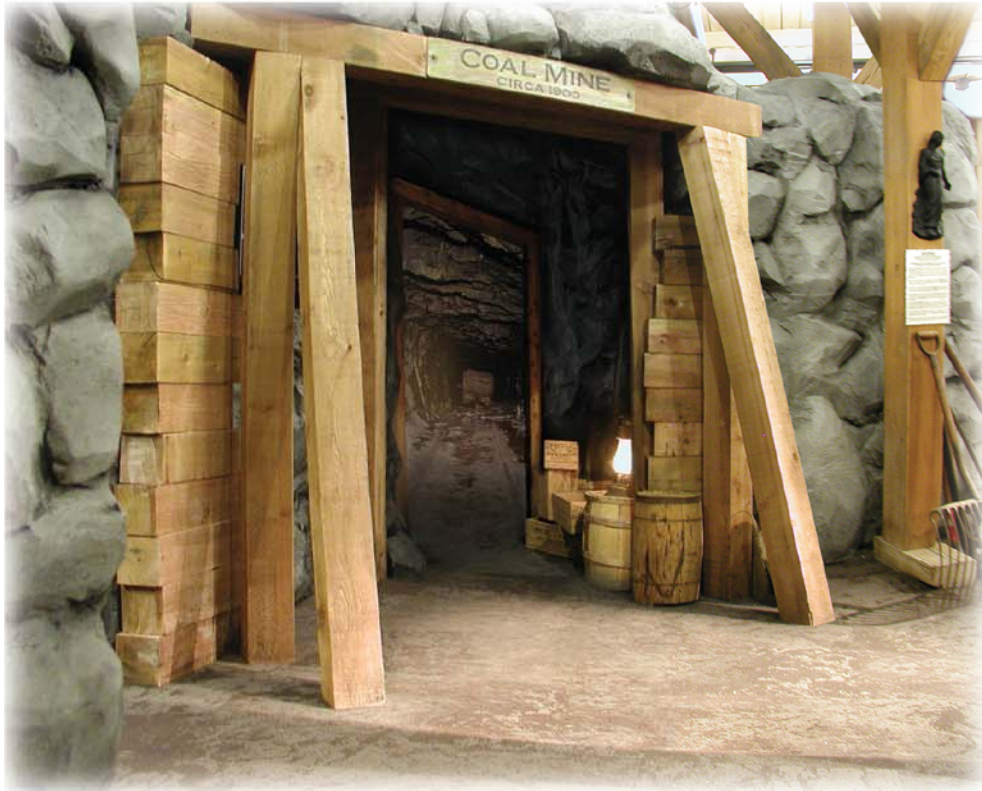

Exhibiting Over a Century of Progress in a Museum that says, “Mine, All Mine.”

Bucyrus selected Triad to create a unique corporate museum that would exhibit their proud mining heritage. The challenge was coordinating the transition from century-old artifacts and archival photographs to their current technology and equipment used globally to harvest the earth's greatest energy resource; coal.

